Each application shall contain an agreement to submit to the assessment schedule given below. Failure to agree to this provision shall be cause to deny issuance of an Alarm User Permit.

The third false alarm from the same location or alarm system within a six month period, resulting from equipment malfunction, improper installation or maintenance of equipment, or human error or negligence, shall constitute a civil infraction subject to monetary penalties as set forth below: For the third false alarm, a penalty of $50.00, for the fourth false alarm, a penalty of $100.00, for the fifth false alarm and each subsequent alarm, a penalty of $200.00 shall be assessed. All penalties are subject to uniform court costs as set forth, and usually assessed in the Magistrate Court of Taos, New Mexico.

All Alarm User Permits shall be charged an annual fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per calendar year.

Each holder of an Alarm User Permit shall, within ten (10) days of any change of the information on the Alarm User Permit application, notify the Village Clerk of any and all changes in the information on this application.

The information contained in an Alarm User Permit application shall be securely maintained and restricted to inspection only by authorized representatives of the Village, including, but not limited to, the Public Safety Officers, the Fire Chief, the Village Administrator, the Village Attorney, and/or the Village Clerk.

Please return form along with $10 application fee to The Village of Taos Ski Valley, P.O. Box 100, Taos Ski Valley, NM 87525
